Lines from Leo.

Leo, January 49:—Work on the Atlantic Coast Lumber Corp's tramroad has been renewed. The road was already built as far as Prospect church; now they are busy extending it into the Leo section that they may be in readiness to deliver fertilizers and other freight. This will be a great help to the farmers and merchants in this section.

Mrs B B Johnson, after spending a few days with her son, Dr L B Johnson, at Rome, has returned to her home at Bethune.

Quarterly conference was held at Prospect church Saturday and Sunday. Presiding Elder Browne of Kingstree gave us an admirable sermon.

Mr G C Franklin of South Boston, Va, arrived last week to take charge of Mr R A Brown's tobacco crop. We welcome Mr Franklin and wish for him a successful year.

Mr Bailey Lyerly has accepted a position as clerk for Mr W Poston. Bailey is a bright young man and we wish for him a prosperous year in business and otherwise.

Mr Jesse Hanna, a son of Mr S D Hanna, is at home on a furlough. Jesse has been in the United States navy for the past two years. He says he likes to work for "Uncle Sam".

Hog by Mail.

Mr J W Blanton yesterday received a fifty-pound hog by mail from Tillman, S. C, sent here by a friend, or rather, the "pig in the poke" came via parcel post and cost fifty-four cents, which is rather cheap as freight goes. The recent dispensation from the postal officials at Washington permits one to send a package by parcel post in first and second zones, a radius of 150 miles, to a maximum weight of 50 pounds. The South Carolina friend of Mr Blanton took advantage of this and sent the nice porker as a present.—Charlotte (N C) Observer.
